Swimming Lessons

Swimming Lessons are offered at the Norwood Swimming Centre throughout the season for children as young as three years of age. The swim school caters for all children and all swimming abilities. All levels work on developing technical skills and introducing water safety concepts.

Swimming lessons are available at the following times (30 minute classes): Monday–Thursday afternoons from 3.30pm to 6pm and Saturday mornings from 9am to 12 noon.

To ensure your child gets the best opportunity to learn, beginner classes are limited to 4 students per class and intermediate, 5 or 6 students.

If you have a lesson enquiry, visit our website to submit your enquiry online or email swimschool@npsp.sa.gov.au

VACSWIM

Payneham Memorial Swimming Centre Redevelopment

The Payneham Memorial Swimming Centre will be transformed into an exciting aquatic facility for swimmers, families and the wider community.

Construction is well underway to transform the Payneham Memorial Swimming Centre into a state-of-the-art aquatic facility.

The Council is delivering the multi-million dollar project, which includes a $5.6 million Local Government Infrastructure Partnership Program contribution from the State Government. The upgrade will include:

- an 8 lane, 25 metre indoor pool;
- an 11 x 20 metre indoor learner's pool;
- a 10 lane, 50 metre outdoor pool;
- a 14 metre tall tower with two waterslides;
- multiple male, female and unisex all-access changerooms with showers, toilets and lockers;
- multipurpose meeting room; and
- shade shelters and picnic seating.

Each pool will have an all-access entry via ramp or lift. Aquatic wheelchairs will be available for public use.

The redevelopment will also boost the local economy by creating jobs and a direct expenditure on construction.

Please follow the
'Watch Around Water' rules:
